

A decorative graphic at the top of the page showing a piece of aged, yellowed paper with a torn edge. Faint, illegible text from the paper is visible, including words like "a little", "sw, then", "ad chaff", "ll wat", "did n", "for", "I an", "reve", "ses", "t, a", "po", "ed", and "to".

Friend or Foe?

Part 1 Directions: Select a book to read. Then, pick a character you like the most from the story you read. Describe the character you chose by completing the graphic organizer below. For support, connect with a Paper tutor in a Live Help session and complete the graphic organizer together (click her for directions on how to use Live Help)!

Book: _____

Character: _____

Traits

How are they described in the story? What do they look like?

Emotions

How do they feel at a particular moment in the story?

Thoughts

Why do you think they did those actions based on the story?

Actions

What did they do?

Friend or Foe?

Part 2

Imagine you were to meet this character in real life. Would you be the best of friends, the worst of enemies, or somewhere in between? Write 1-3 paragraphs explaining what type of relationship you would have with this character. Provide evidence from the text to support your response.

Pro Tip: Login to work with a Paper tutor during a Live Help session to help you brainstorm how you will go about writing your response (click here for directions on how to use Live Help).

Part 3

Once you've drafted your response, complete the following:

1. Type your response and save it as a PDF or google document.
2. Login to Paper and upload your graphic organizer and short story to Essay Review for feedback (click here for directions on how to use Essay Review).
3. Review the revisions your Paper tutor suggested and make your edits.
4. Share your response with your friends and family!

